PUTNAM BOOKS AND AUTHORS

THEY COST LESS and GIVE MORE

Good theatre tickets cost from $2.75 to $3.50 and up. Good novels average about $2.00—no Putnam fiction is higher.

The maximum return from a theatre is an evening's enjoyment.

A good book is a pleasure, mental stimulation, ideas for yourself, your household, and your friends. And it is permanent—a lasting investment—an ideal gift.

"I WAS THERE"

Probably YOU were, too—in O. P. Weller's "I WAS THERE." It is the famous book of campaign drawings by the artist of the "A. E. F." There's quite the best stuff that came back from France—laughable, sometimes almost human pictures of the Yanks and their life in the big show. A record tremendously worth giving. (This big, handsome book, $3.50.)

Town Topics says HIGH SOCIETY (the book of satirical social drawing by Fish) "is screamingly funny." The friends to whom you give it will bless you!

Again we recommend to you—

WILDERNESS

A JOURNAL OF QUIET ADVENTURE IN ALASKA BY ROCKWELL KENT

The New Statesman of London says:

"'Wilderness' is easily the most remarkable book to come out of America since 'Leaves of Grass' was published."

YOU TOO?

In the Telegram, Frederick James Gregg says:

"...Oh, the difference to us, after the moribund post-war poets, to hold this graceful volume of verses, that flows in smoothly, that contains an intelligent thought on every page, that glides daintily with light touches of delicious humor."

"Yes, several of our friends will find 'FIR TREES AND FIREFLIES' in their stockings on Christmas morning."

Do you want your friends to live 100 years? If so, why not give them

NEVER GROW OLD

Dr. Goldet, the author, is an eminent French physician. He is 85 years old and in perfect health. Give him to your friends to the method described in his book.

Old Bill, of "Fragments from France" fame, and hero of "The Better 'Ole," is back again. The new book is called

THE BAIRNSFATHER CASE.

The whole horrid truth of the defendant's life is bared, and many new drawings are offered as material evidence. $2.50

And here are four novels your friends will truly appreciate:

Top of the World by ETHEL M. DELL. $2.00

Heart of Unaga by RICHARD W. PULLEN. $2.00

Kobiety (Women) by SOPHIA ROTKIEWICZ. $2.00

(A novel of Polish life.)

Laughing House by MEADE MINNIGRO. $2.00

A joyous story of an American home.

"A NEW TOLSTOY"

THE WORLD'S ILLUSION

By J. Wassermann

"Before such a work of art comment seems indecent, at best inadequate. I recall no novel of such ambitious intent since 'Jean-Christophe,' and beside Wassermann, Rolland appears as a mere ethical lecturer."—Llewellyn Jones in Chicago Evening Post.

MOON-CAFE by Floyd Dell

A really fine achievement. It places in for once and all among the few Americans who are to be seriously considered in the field of fiction.

Gen. Hill Buried With Impressive Ceremonies

12,000 Soldiers Line Route of Funeral Procession; Two Days' Public Mourning Decried

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 16.—Impressive military ceremonies marked the burial to-day of General Benjamin G. Hill, the War Secretary, who died yesterday. Twelve thousand soldiers lined the route from the National Palace to the French Cemetery.

George T. Summerlin, United States Chargé d'Affaires here, attended the funeral with other members of the diplomatic corps.

The body, on a caisson under a military escort commanded by General Calles, the chief of Cabinet, was taken from the Palace down the Avenida Madero to the Department of Foreign Relations, where it was transferred to the funeral car. Meanwhile four airplanes circled overhead dropping flowers. President Obregon attended the ceremonies, as did the members of the Cabinet and the entire membership of the Congress.

Two days of public mourning have been decreed by President Obregon.

JOSEPH N. FRANCOLINI

Joseph Nicola Francolini, founder and president of the Italian Savings Bank in Spring Street, died suddenly Tuesday evening at his home, 160 West Eighty-eighth Street. He was one of the representative Italian-born citizens and was devotedly attached to the service of his people in this city.

For many years he was a member of the Board of Education and was faithful to introduce the teaching of the Italian language into the Public Schools in order that the children of Italian parents might be more in sympathy with the older ones in the family who could not speak English. In recognition of his success in this work he was named by the Italian community as the King of Italy conferred on him the Order of Chevalier of St. Maurice and Lazarus, and later the title of Commander.

He was a past president of the Dante Alighieri Society and other Italian organizations, and was an honored member of the Order of the Sons of the American Revolution, and later the title of Commander.
